To whom it may concern,

Due to the ongoing situation involving COVID-19, the Hazardous Waste Generator (HWG) Certificate Classes scheduled for March and June 2020 have been canceled or postponed. For the current status of the remaining classes, please see the Oklahoma State University College of Engineering, Architecture, and Technology Professional Development webpage at <https://ceatpd.okstate.edu/node/143>.

If you have any questions, please contact Sam Ephgrave at s.ephgrave@okstate.edu or 405-744-9033. You may also contact me at ryan.kirk@deq.ok.gov or the telephone number listed below.
